8 Reading

Before Reading

What kinds of chores do you do at home?
Who decides the chores you do?

Someone Has to Do It!

Parents often complain that they always have to tell their teenage children to do their chores. Parents think their kids are irresponsible. On the other hand, teens feel their parents are always nagging and complaining.

A major problem is that parents think that teens need to do the chores on their schedule, while the teens think, "Why do I have to do it now, when I can do it later?" This usually leads to unnecessary conflict between teens and their parents.

The general questions parents usually ask about chores are the following: Should teens have them? Should teens and parents agree on a list of chores together? Should teens have freedom to decide when to do them?

One mother says, "My daughter and I make a list of chores each week. That way she can organize her time for schoolwork, housework, and free time, too." Another parent only gives his son pocket money after he has done all his chores around the house. He says, "No chores, no money. It makes teens responsible for earning their money, rather than just simply giving them an allowance." Some teenagers complain, "My friends don't have to do chores, so why should I?"

Normally parents expect their teenage sons and daughters to help around the house. But parents and teens have to agree on the kind of chores and when the teens have to do them. One mom's son wants to do his chores after he goes out with his friends, but then he's usually too tired. Another mother only lets her daughter see her friends after she finishes all the housework. But housework never ends! So what's the solution?

Teens and parents have to reach a compromise. There has to be common sense on both sides, don't you think?

Follow the answer on the next page

After Reading

Write two lists: (1) What parents think about teens' chores and (2) What teens think about their chores.

Discussion

In your opinion, how can teens and parents reach a compromise about chores?

After reading

1 parents complain that they have to tell teens to do their chores. They think that kids are irresponsible and don't want to do the chores. They want them to do chores on a schedule.

2 teens feel that their parents are always nagging them about chores. They think they can do the chores later and not on a schedule.

9 Writing

A. Look back at the Reading on page 79. What do the bold-faced pronouns or possessive adjectives refer to?

- | | | | |
|------------------------|------------------------|-----------------------|-----------------|
| 1. It (in the title) | Homework | 6. she (paragraph 4) | Daughter |
| 2. their (paragraph 1) | Teens | 7. He (paragraph 4) | A parent |
| 3. their (paragraph 2) | Parents | 8. them (paragraph 4) | Teens |
| 4. This (paragraph 2) | A major problem | 9. his (paragraph 5) | Son's |
| 5. them (paragraph 3) | Chores | 10. her (paragraph 5) | Mother's |

Writing Corner

Subject and object pronouns and possessive adjectives help to link sentences in writing.

- Pronouns and possessive adjectives link ideas in sentences.
Most teenagers don't want to do chores when their parents expect them to.
- Pronouns help avoid repeating the same word or words.
One mother lets her daughter see her friends after she finishes the housework.
- Demonstrative pronouns like this and that can refer to one word or a whole idea.
Some teenagers refuse to do their chores. This can often lead to conflict.

B. Complete the paragraph with suitable pronouns or possessive adjectives.

Parents often complain that (1) their teenage children spend too much time on the Internet. (2) they think that (3) their children should do other activities such as reading books, playing a sport, or doing homework. On the other hand, teenagers feel that (4) their parents don't realize the importance of the Internet. For many teenagers, the Internet is a way to socialize and stay in touch with (5) their friends. (6) they also use (7) it to do research for school assignments. Besides that, teenagers surf the Internet to learn about things that interest (8) them and to learn more about the world in general.

C. Write about how parents and teenagers feel about homework. Remember to use pronouns and possessive adjectives to link sentences.

10 Project

Work in a group. Find out from your classmates the most common excuses for:

- | | |
|-------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1. being late to school | 3. not doing their chores |
| 2. arriving home late | 4. not doing their homework |

11 Form, Meaning and Function

Must/Mustn't

The form of the modal verb must is the same for all subjects. It is followed by the base form of the main verb without to.

We use must to express obligation and necessity.

We must follow the rules. He must stop at the traffic lights.

We use mustn't to express that something is forbidden or not allowed.

You mustn't talk during the test. They mustn't park on the sidewalk.

Have To/Don't Have To

The form of have to changes to agree with the subject. It can also be used in the past tense as had to. It is followed by the base form of the main verb.

We use have to to express obligation and necessity.

They have to wear uniforms at school. She has to do her chores. I had to clean my room.
Do we have to be there early? Does he have to go now? Did you have to work late?

We use don't have to to say there is NO obligation; it isn't necessary. The past form is didn't have to.

You don't have to iron the socks. He didn't have to work yesterday.

A. Complete the sentences with has to, must, or mustn't.

- Omar Must/has to do his chores.
- He Mustn't hang out with his friends now.
- He Must/has to clean up the kitchen.
- He Must/has to wash the dishes.
- He Must/has to clean the floor.
- He Must/has to take out the garbage.
- He Mustn't talk on the phone now.
- He Mustn't be lazy and irresponsible.

B. Complete the sentences with the correct form of must or have to.

- Look how long the grass is! We really Must/have to mow the lawn.
- Noura Must/has to finish her assignment because it is due tomorrow.
- We Didn't have to go to school yesterday. It was Saturday.
- You mustn't cross the street when the light is red.
- I had to babysit, so I didn't hang out with my friends yesterday.
- What time Do we must leave for the airport? Our flight's at 10 a.m.
- Children must eat a healthy breakfast every morning.
- Mother Doesn't have to cook tonight because we're going out for dinner.
- How long Did you have to wait for the bus this morning?
- We mustn't forget to take our camera with us on vacation.

4 Faisal spends his money on food, video games, electronic stuff.

8 Reading

Before Reading

Look at the photos below. What do you think people can buy in these places?

The Best Place to Shop—and Be!

In an age where you can buy almost anything on the Internet, thousands of people all over the world still prefer to do their shopping in traditional places. In general, shoppers look for bargains, and the best prices are usually found in street markets. Many markets around the world have a similar lively atmosphere and sell nearly anything you can imagine from jewelry and clothes, fresh produce, spices, and fish, to carpets, electronics, and livestock.

Riyadh has some of the world's most beautiful modern shopping malls, with designer boutiques and brand names. But if you're looking for real bargains, you'll head for some of the traditional souqs in town. *Haraj is a secondhand market just east of the city. Impress your friends and dress in Chanel and Armani for a fraction of the price, or get that new kitchen appliance you've been dreaming of. Many of the so-called "used" items aren't used at all—just don't tell anyone where you bought it.

Al-Bat'ha District is home to many traditional markets. Whether you are looking for electronics and watches, jewelry, perfume, furniture, car accessories, bicycles, or food—they sell it all at often ridiculous prices. For more traditional goods, antiques, and souvenirs check out Al-Thumairi near the Al-Masmak Fort. This is particularly popular with tourists. And nearby is the Al-Deira market where everything is worth its weight in gold, literally. Looking for a camel? They come in all shapes, colors, and sizes at Souq Al-Jimal.

Visitors go to the local souqs for more than just shopping. You can see and meet an amazing mixture of people from around the world. Many feel that the cultural experience is the main attraction of these markets.

FYI

Haraj is a large market where people buy and sell both new and used items, such as furniture, carpets, computers, electronics, car parts, clothing, and toys.

- A. Read the text. What are the advantages of shopping online?

Personally, I can't stand shopping in department stores or malls. They're too crowded, and it takes too long to find what you want. You buy something and then a week later, you see it on sale.

I prefer to do my shopping online. It's convenient, quick, and easy. When you know what you want, it takes just a few minutes to compare prices. A lot of e-stores guarantee the lowest price, and they also make exchanges or refund your money when you are not satisfied with a product. Many people think e-shopping isn't safe, but that's not true. You need to choose well-known and secure websites. And you don't have to use a credit card because there are other ways to pay without giving personal information.

I usually buy electronic stuff, accessories for my bike, and sports clothes. I am never disappointed with the things I buy. Only once, I exchanged a bicycle helmet because it was too small. But that wasn't a problem. I think that I save money this way, because I only buy what I want. I don't spend money on things that I don't need.

Writing Corner

- In informal writing, the subject you can refer to any person or people in general.
You can save time when you shop online, but you can't see the product in person.
 When you shop in a store, you can try clothes on before you buy them.

Compare or contrast in a store and shopping online

Shopping is an interest of many people. Nowadays, thanks to the development of information technology, people can buy things not only at a mall but also on internet (or shopping online). Shopping at a mall and shopping online differ in terms of shopping style and conveniences. First, when go to a mall to shop, you must drive to the store or the market and carry an enough big bag to keep what you buy and you must bring them to your home by yourself. In addition, you can see what you want to buy and bargain for the most suitable price, then you may not buy them. While shopping online lets you not carry any load or weight from the items you purchased. You only need have a computer linking internet, stay anywhere, select from a wide range without hassle, simply, clicking your mouse in browsing the different products. You will just wait for it to be delivered. If shopping at a mall is paid in cash, shopping online is paid by coupon codes and you can have great discounts. Second, shopping online is supposed to be more convenient than shopping at a mall, especially in modern society. People often think shopping online is cheaper than shopping at a mall. Products on internet have fixed prices, no bargaining while at the market; sellers usually set a much higher price than basic one. Moreover, shopping online helps us save time, labor to have what we need. However, it has more risk if the sellers upload fake goods on internet, you may receive goods that are not what you ordered. Shopping at a mall helps us improve communicating ability, relationships with every people. In conclusion, shopping at store and shopping online have three most important differences, time, quality of product and product price. In any way, both shopping at stores and online shopping have their own advantages and disadvantages. However, which is the best for you depend on the purpose of buying product. There for we should think carefully before deciding to buy product at stores or by online to get the best effects.

Amazing Facts

The World's Most Popular Sport

Football is the most popular international team sport. It is much more popular than American football, basketball, or baseball. FIFA (Fédération Internationale de Football Association), the worldwide football organization, has approximately 71 million teams in 301,000 clubs, with 265 million players around the globe. It has more members than the United Nations. The World Cup is one of the most spectacular sporting events in the world. Every four years, over a billion people follow the month-long competition between the top 32 football-playing nations on TV.

The World's Most Expensive Hotel

The Burj Al Arab Hotel in Dubai is the world's most famous seven-star hotel. The hotel is an architectural wonder. It looks like a huge sail. Its height is 1,053 feet (321 meters), making it one of the world's tallest hotels. The Burj Al Arab (Arabian Tower) is built on a human-made island. It is the world's most luxurious hotel. It features marble and glass from Italy, 24-karat-gold-plated faucets and doorknobs, mirrors that turn into TV screens in the bathrooms, rotating beds, and all the latest technology. The cheapest suite is more than $1,500 per night, and the most expensive suite can cost over $25,000.

The Great White: The World's Most Dangerous Fish

The great white shark is one of the oldest living species on Earth—it existed 350 million years ago. It is the largest and the most dangerous predatory fish, and it is the most feared by humans. Great white sharks can grow up to 20 feet (6 meters) long and weigh up to 4,400 pounds (2,000 kilograms). They have about 3,000 teeth arranged in several rows. When the front teeth break or fall out, these teeth are replaced by others from the next row. Sharks' hearing is very sensitive, and they can hear their prey many miles away. They can also detect one part per million of blood in seawater.

Did you know?

3 Grammar

Comparative and Superlative Forms of Adjectives

The Comparative

Use adjective + -er or more + adjective to make the comparative.

Imad is tall. Ahmed is taller than Imad.

Imad is intelligent. Ahmed is more intelligent than Imad.

Note: The comparative is often used with than.

The Superlative

Use the + adjective + -est or the most + adjective to make the superlative.

Ahmed is the tallest boy in the class. He is also the smartest.

Ahmed is the most intelligent boy in the class. He is also the most athletic.

Formation

Use -er or -est for one-syllable adjectives and adjectives that end in y; for example, happy–happier–happiest.

Use more or most for longer adjectives.

Spelling Rules:

Most adjectives: old–older–oldest

Adjectives ending in e: nice–nicer–nicest

Adjectives ending in y: easy–easier–easiest

Adjectives ending in one vowel followed by one consonant: big–bigger–biggest, hot–hotter–hottest.

Some adjectives have irregular comparative and superlative forms.

good–better–the best; bad–worse–the worst

- A. Complete the sentences with the comparative or superlative forms of the adjectives in parentheses. Use the before superlatives.

- Jeddah is the most interesting (interesting) place I know.

Before Reading

Imagine the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia in 2030. Read the text and find out about positive changes for society in health care and education, culture and entertainment, business and job opportunities, and more.

Vision 2030 Kingdom of Saudi Arabia: Building a Brighter Future for All

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has a great amount of natural resources, such as oil, gold, phosphate, uranium, and other valuable minerals. But more importantly, it is blessed with the strength, potential, and ambition of its people. The children of the Kingdom's family-oriented, Islamic society will be the force of the future.

Families will receive all the support they need to raise their children according to Islamic values and help them develop their abilities. There will be more libraries, galleries, and museums in different areas. Cultural events and activities will be organized to educate and provide entertainment. Health care and education will be available to all citizens making their lives happier and more secure.

A healthy economy will offer opportunities to large and small businesses. Quality services and facilities will attract investors from different countries. A renewed business environment will provide professional opportunities to all citizens. A high quality educational system that meets the needs of the job market will provide Saudi professionals with the necessary knowledge and skills.

The Kingdom's strategic position will make it an international trade and transportation center. It will become the hub that will connect Africa, Asia, and Europe.

Telecommunications and information technology will be developed in and around cities. This will make it easier for people to communicate across the globe and access information.

Government services will support the growth and development of private and non-profit organizations and help them to operate successfully.

Adapted from the text of the Vision Programs at <https://vision2030.gov.sa/en> and from the text that was drafted by the Council of Economic and Development Affairs as instructed by the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, King Salman.*

After reading

1 valuable minerals, for example, oil, gold, phosphate, uranium.

2 the kingdom has a strong, family oriented, Islamic society.

3 social services will include health care and high quality education for all the citizens.

4 there will be Opportunities for large and small businesses, new investors from other countries.

5 technological development will improve communication and are it possible for people to access information through the internet.

6 quality services and facilities will attract investors from different countries.

9 Writing

- A. Read the information in the Writing Corner with your teacher. Then, write the correct passive form (present or past) of the verbs in parentheses to complete the text.

Diamonds are the hardest natural substance on Earth. They are made (1. make) entirely of carbon. Graphite, which is used (2. use) to make pencils, is another material that is made (3. make) entirely of carbon, but it is one of the softest substances. The difference is the molecular structure that is formed (4. form) by the bonds between the carbon atoms.

Diamond's atomic structure

Diamonds are formed (5. form) under high temperature and pressure deep within Earth's crust. The process can take from one to three billion years. Then the diamonds are pushed (6. push) gradually to the surface by volcanic activity.

The Cullinan is the world's largest diamond. It was found (7. find) in South Africa in 1905. It weighed 3,106.75 karats (621.35 grams). It was cut (8. cut) into 9 large gemstones. The largest of the cut diamonds is called (9. call) the Great Star of Africa and weighs 530.2 karats. The Lesser Star of Africa is 317.4 karats. These diamonds belong to the British Crown, and they are part of one of the world's biggest collections of jewels.

Today, there is a man-made substance that is even harder than diamonds—the nanodiamond or diamond nanorods. The nanodiamond is produced (10. produce) by the compression of graphite. It is the hardest substance known to man.

Writing Corner

Use the passive to emphasize the action and not who or what does it.

1. To make the passive, use the verb be and a past participle.*

Simple present: Diamonds are made entirely of carbon.

Simple past: The Cullinan diamond was found in Africa.

2. Use by to show the agent (the person or thing that does the action).

Diamonds are pushed to the surface by volcanic activity.

The pencil was invented by an Italian couple named Bernacotti.

* See page 180 for a list of irregular verbs and past participles.

- B. Write about a place, a person, a thing, or an animal from a book of records. Say why it is the biggest, the best, the most wonderful, etc. Use the passive where possible.

THE STONES OF AL-ULA

To: qassim_n@space.net
Subject: School trip to Al-Ula

Hi Qassim,

I'm writing this email from our hotel in Al-Ula. We arrived this evening after a long bus journey from Madinah. It's really too bad you couldn't join us on our school trip. We're going to learn so much about the historical sites that we can't learn in books.

It's quite busy here in town, with tourists from all over the world who have come to visit Mada'in Saleh. Tomorrow a guide is going to show us around the site. We're also going to visit the museum, Al-Ula oasis, and the old abandoned city.

The archaeological site lies about 20 km north of the town. It's also known as Al-Hijr because of the spectacular rock formations in the area. As you know, the site was settled by the Nabataeans in the first century. There are over 100 rock-carved monuments that are spread over an area of 13.4 kilometers, and due to the dry climate, they are in an excellent state of preservation. The site was included in UNESCO's World Heritage List in 2008 because of its cultural and architectural importance.

The desert around the oasis is covered by natural rock formations. Hundreds of curious shapes were carved by the wind into the soft sandstone, one of which resembles a giant elephant! The old city of Al-Deerah is going to be very interesting. It has over 500 houses from the 13th century, with stone foundations and mud-brick walls. Some of the stones were taken from the ruins of a Lihyanite settlement and still carry the ancient inscriptions. There is also a unique sundial that the inhabitants used to determine the start of Ramadan.

Don't worry. I'll take lots of amazing pictures to show you!

Best wishes,

Adel

AL-Hijr was settled by the Nabataeans in the first century. There are over 100 rock-carved monuments that are spread over an area 13.4 kilometers, and due to the dry climate, they are in an excellent state of preservation. The site was included in UNESCO's World Heritage list in 2008 because of its cultural and architectural importance.

Subject: Greek island

Hi Saeed,

I hope you're well. I'm writing from the Greek island of Paros. You know how I always wanted to visit Greece. Well, I'm finally here. It's a dream come true!

First, we flew to Athens. We spent a wonderful day there visiting the Parthenon and the Acropolis Museum. Amazing! The next day, we went to the port of Piraeus and caught a high-speed ferry to the island. The voyage took less than 3 hours.

We're staying in a comfortable hotel in the capital, Parikia. It's a very picturesque town, with its narrow streets and traditional white houses that have blue doors and windows. In the evening, the stores, cafés, and restaurants are crowded with tourists. It's so lively, and I have to say Greek food is absolutely delicious!

Of course, the island has many scenic beaches with crystal clear waters and soft sand. Tomorrow, we're going to spend the day at Golden Beach. I'm really excited because I'm going to try windsurfing! Apart from the spectacular beaches, we plan to explore the unique sights of the island. We're going to visit the Archaeological Museum and the Valley of Butterflies.

I'll tell you more about my adventures in Paros soon. Write me back with your news.

Best wishes,
 Khalid

Things to do in Paris

Eiffel Tower ►

The Eiffel Tower is one of the world's most popular and well-known sites. It is named after its architect, Gustave Eiffel, and was built in 1889 for the Universal Exposition. The tower is 1,062 feet (324 meters) high and offers fantastic views of the city. Very often, visitors have to wait in line to take the elevator to the observation deck. But the wait is worth it. At night, the tower itself becomes a beautifully illuminated sculpture. The Eiffel Tower is the most-visited building in the world. It welcomes around 7 million visitors per year.

Paris

The City of Light

◀ The Louvre

The Louvre was originally a royal palace. In 1516, Leonardo da Vinci came to France as a painter for the Royal Court, and brought with him the painting of Mona Lisa. The king acquired it, and it became part of the royal collection. Today the painting stands in the Louvre in a climate-controlled enclosure behind bulletproof glass. In the 1600s, the Louvre was a palace that contained art and rich decorations, and it only opened as a museum in 1793. The renovation of the museum in 1981 made it even more beautiful, and a pyramid was built as an entrance. Today, the Louvre is the world's largest museum and possesses the world's largest and richest collection of art and antiques from around the world.

Arc de Triomphe and the Champs Elysées ►

The Arc de Triomphe is a magnificent site at the end of the Champs Elysées, and one of the most famous monuments of Paris.

Napoleon I ordered the construction of the monument in 1806 to celebrate his conquests. He got the idea from the triumphal arches of the emperors in ancient Rome. The Arc de Triomphe is a landmark in Paris because of its size and beauty.

From the Arc de Triomphe, you can enjoy a walk along the Champs Elysées. There are many shops, restaurants, and cafés along this boulevard. Be sure you stop off at a crêpe stand on one of the side streets. The chocolate crêpes are absolutely wonderful!

◀ Seine River Tours

Boat tours along the Seine run throughout the day and evening. Many include lunch or dinner. The boats depart from the Pont de l'Alma (on the Right Bank) or from the foot of the Eiffel Tower (on the Left Bank). You can see many attractions on the trip, such as the Île de la Cité in the middle of the river as well as some of Paris's famous bridges.

After Reading

Answer yes or no.

1. yes Leonardo da Vinci brought a painting with him to France.
2. no The Louvre Museum is famous for its views of Paris.
3. yes The Eiffel Tower is the most popular tourist sight in the world.
4. no The Arc de Triomphe is famous because it has Napoleon's tomb.
5. yes The Île de la Cité is an island in the middle of the Seine River.

Discussion

1. You and a friend are going on vacation to Paris. Discuss what you're going to do there. Tell the class about it.
2. Compare Paris to other cities you know. Which city is best to visit? Why?

Research some tourist sites in your country and make a presentation to the class.

1 Listen and Discuss

Which of these cities has weather most like yours?

Weather Around the World

Summer is usually sunny, really hot, and very dry. Temperatures are often over 104 degrees Fahrenheit (40 degrees Celsius), and 54 percent humidity.

Chicago, U.S.A.

Jeddah, KSA

It gets very cold in winter, and it often snows. Chicago gets approximately 40 inches of snow (100 centimeters) per year. Temperatures often fall below zero Celsius, and even below zero Fahrenheit.

Montreal, Canada

The weather in the fall can be unpredictable, from cool to cold. It's often windy and cloudy, and temperatures vary from 40 to 58 degrees Fahrenheit (5 to 15 degrees Celsius).

Kyoto, Japan

Spring is usually cool, but some days can be quite warm. The average temperature is around 52 degrees Fahrenheit (11.2 degrees Celsius).

People's Plans

Adnan

"I want to go to the beach in the summer. It's hot and sunny, and I can go swimming. I like the weather in the summer."

"I think I'll go camping in the fall. It's when trees begin to lose their leaves and offer a magnificent display of colors."

Henry

Wayne

"I'll probably go ice-skating or skiing this winter. Maybe I'll visit my family in Florida and get away from the cold."

"I'll go and see the cherry blossoms. Spring in Kyoto is absolutely breathtaking. It's my favorite season."

Tomi

It's hurricane season. Hurricane George will pass over the Gulf of Mexico, but will not cause any damage. It won't hit Mexico, but will stay over the gulf.

The Weather Forecast

It'll rain in Central America tomorrow. It may also rain in the Yucatan Peninsula in Mexico. Florida will be cloudy. The temperature will be around 86 degrees Fahrenheit—that's 30 degrees Celsius—in Miami.

8 Reading

Before Reading

Does the weather change the way you feel? How?

Can Weather Affect People's Moods?

Do you think it will rain tomorrow? Will it be cool or warm? People often ask about the weather because they want to wear appropriate clothing. But the weather can mean more to people than just changes in clothing. According to new research, warm, sunny weather can have a positive impact on mental health and mood. On the other hand, cold, dark winter weather can have a negative effect, even causing Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD), a depression that comes back every winter. Read people's answers to a survey about how the weather affects their moods.

I can't really tell if the weather affects people's moods. In my country, it's always hot. In the winter, the temperature is about 84 degrees Fahrenheit (29 degrees Celsius). We usually have bright, sunny skies, and the people here are normally very happy even during thunderstorms. Maybe one day I'll get to see the snow and see if the cold weather will change my mood. Ibrahim – Jeddah, Saudi Arabia

I live on an island that has about two hundred beaches. So the weather affects the way I feel and our way of life very much. I'm in a lively mood the whole year round. People think that my country is tropical, but in the south we sometimes get some really cold, windy days, and I feel down. However, they don't last very long. When that happens, I just try to tell myself not to worry because tomorrow or the day after will be beautiful and sunny again. Felipe – Florianopolis, Brazil

The weather definitely affects the way I feel. When it's rainy and dreary out, I feel tired and depressed, and I don't want to do anything outdoors. So I try not to look out of the window, and I spend my time like a typical couch potato, watching TV and eating, or playing video games. My body and my brain seem to function better when it's sunny. I'm more energetic, and I feel like exercising more frequently. The trouble is that it rains on about one day out of three in England. Keith – Liverpool, England

Complete the chart. List the effects of the weather on the three people.

	Good Weather	Bad Weather
Ibrahim	He feels energetic and likes exercising more frequently	He feels tired and depressed and doesn't want to do anything outdoors.
Felipe	He's in a lively mood.	He feels down.
Keith	The weather is always hot and sunny, and people are normally happy.	He has never been in snow and cold weather, so he doesn't know their effect.

B.

Warm and sunny	My mood seems to function better when it's warm and sunny. I'm more energetic, and I feel like exercising more frequently.
Cloudy and rainy	I feel depressed and tired, and I don't want to do anything outdoors.
Hot and dry	I become easy to be nervous and temperamental.
Other: windy	I feel fear tension.

C.

I think everybody effects by the weather. My mood seems to function better when it's warm and sunny. I'm more energetic, and I feel like exercising more frequently.

In a cloudy and rainy weather, I feel depressed, tired, and I don't want to do anything outdoors. I spend my time eating and watching TV, or playing computer games.

When it's hot and dry, I become easy to be nervous and temperamental.

I fear of wind and I try not to look out of the window. So when it's windy, I feel tension.

8 Reading

Before Reading

When do people usually write messages or leave notes?

Dear Daughter

Dear Farah,

I need you to do me a big favor. There's been an emergency, and I have to go to the hospital. Your grandmother fell down the stairs, and I'm afraid she may have a broken hip. Your brother is going to drive me there as soon as he gets home. I don't know how long I'll be there, so I really need your help tonight.

I didn't have time to finish preparing the meal, so please make dinner for the family. The chicken is ready—it's in the fridge. Just cook it with some rice. Will you also make a salad? Your father will be home at about 7 o'clock. He's going to be late because he has a meeting after work. Could you also wash Hameed's football uniform? His team has a big game tomorrow. He can't do it because he is taking me to the hospital. I did the rest of the laundry this morning, but I didn't have time to iron your father's clothes for tomorrow. Please do that for me. Thanks, dear.

Don't worry. Hameed will call you later to let you know about grandmother's condition.

Love,
Mom

P.S. Tell Mona and Imad to help you wash up after dinner. And please make sure that they do all their homework. Don't let them watch TV until they've finished! Ask your father to help Imad with his math if you don't have time.

1 Listen and Discuss

Did you ever hear an unusual piece of news on the radio or TV? Talk about it.

NEWS

A parrot named Percy was fired from the Bakersville Zoo. He was one of a dozen talking parrots, which are the zoo's main attraction. The parrots were performing in front of a crowd when Percy suddenly shrieked out improper language. The visitors and zookeepers were shocked. The zoo decided not to risk a repeat performance in front of children and kicked Percy out of the zoo. One zookeeper said, "We'll find a safe new home for Percy."

A 76-year-old grandfather saved his 8-year-old grandson from a 13-foot-long (4-meter-long) anaconda. The boy was playing with friends near a small river in Cosmorama, Brazil, when the snake attacked him. The boy's grandfather was working nearby. When the grandfather heard the boy's screams, he ran to the riverside and was able to get the animal off the boy. The fight between the snake and the man continued. Finally, someone managed to give the grandfather a big knife, and the grandfather killed the snake. Our hero was very strong, because it normally takes five men to overpower and get control of a snake that size.

The NEWS @ FIVE

The last thing 17-year-old Ricardo Gordon remembers was that a storm was coming, and he was rushing to get inside. Next thing he knew, he was lying in a hospital bed. Here is what happened. Ricardo was listening to the live broadcast of the football game when lightning hit him. As a result, his hair and ears were burned, and he had dark spots all over his body. The wounds on his body followed the wire of his smartphone, from his ears down to his hip, where he was carrying the device. The electric current traveled from his smartphone to his headphones. Ricardo is lucky to be alive!

Reporter: So, Robert, could you tell us what happened?

Robert: Well, I was delivering a pizza and a bottle of soda to a high-rise apartment building last Friday night when the elevator broke down.

Reporter: So, what did you do?

Robert: I shouted and pushed the alarm button, but no one heard me.

Reporter: Why didn't you just use your cell phone to call someone?

Robert: I wasn't carrying my cell phone. I just forgot it.

Reporter: How long were you in the elevator?

Robert: I was stuck in there for 10 hours.

Reporter: Weren't you nervous and scared?

Robert: Not really. I kept my cool. I ate the pizza and drank the soda. Then I went to sleep.

Reporter: How did you get out?

Robert: Well, finally, some residents called the building manager because the elevator wasn't working. When they got the elevator started, I was sleeping on the floor of the elevator with the empty pizza box.

The Herald

Age Means Nothing

Six-year-old Marta Garcia was sitting with her little three-year-old brother in the backseat of the family car as her dad prepared to get in the car and take the wheel. Suddenly a stranger appeared and pushed Marta's father out of the way. He wanted to steal the car. The father fought back, but the thief overpowered him and got in the car. Marta's father was holding on to the car door and screaming when the man started to drive down the road. He said later, "My children were in there. I wasn't going to let go." Finally he lost his grip on the car and fell onto the road. The car disappeared, and the father sat crying on the side of the road.

But Marta wasn't going to let the thief get away with that. She started hitting the carjacker with her fists and pulling his hair. Finally he got tired of it, stopped the car, and ordered the two children out. Marta took her brother from his car seat and helped him get out of the car.

Some minutes later, when Marta's father looked up, he couldn't believe his eyes. His two kids were coming toward him. Marta was holding her brother's hand.

Marta said, "I wasn't scared. I wanted us to be safe. I was hitting the bad man. I just wanted Daddy." The local police officer said, "Marta is a brave little girl."

After Reading

Complete the sentences.

1. Marta was sitting in the backseat when A stranger pushed her father out of the way, got in the car, and drove away.
2. Marta's father fought with the thief, but The thief overpowered him and got in the car.
3. Marta hit the thief and pulled his hair until He stopped the car and ordered the children out.
4. Marta's dad was sitting on the side of the road when He saw his two children walking toward him

Discussion

Do you think it's a good idea to try to stop a thief? Talk about it.

9 Writing

Find an unusual news event and present it in your own words to the class.

11 Form, Meaning and Function

Adverbs of Degree

Adverbs of degree tell about the intensity of a verb, adjective, or adverb. Some common adverbs of degree are: absolutely, almost, completely, extremely, hardly, just, quite, really, very.

Adverbs of degree go before the main verb and before the adjective or adverb.

I absolutely agree with you.

You almost missed your flight.

The students did quite well.

He was just running.

He can hardly stand up.

He is completely exhausted.

Could and Was Able To

We use could and was able to to talk about general ability in the past.

I could run fast when I was young.

They couldn't see in the dark.

I was able to run fast when I was young.

They weren't able to see in the dark.

We use was/were able to, but not could, to talk about one specific past action.

He was able to rescue his grandson.

He ~~could~~ rescue his grandson.

A. Write each student's test score next to the name. (Note: 60% = pass)

| 5. 75% | Fahd's test result was quite good. | 58% |
| 6. 60% | Tom was just able to pass. | 30% |

B. Circle the correct words in the story. In some cases, both words are correct.

Six-year-old Marta Garcia and her baby brother were sitting in the back seat of the car. Mr. Garcia was (1. almost / just) getting into the car when a strange man pushed him away. Mr. Garcia tried to stop him, but the man was (2. very / absolutely) strong and (3. could / was able to) overpower Mr. Garcia. The man, who wanted to steal the car, got in and started driving away. Mr. Garcia grabbed the car door, but he (4. couldn't / wasn't able to) hold on and fell onto the road. He felt (5. quite / completely) helpless and sat there crying.

At first, the thief (6. hardly / just) noticed the children who were sitting quietly in the back. Then Marta became (7. really / extremely) upset. She started hitting the thief and pulling his hair. He (8. hardly / almost) drove off the road. Finally, he (9. couldn't / wasn't able to) stand it any longer, so he stopped the car and ordered the children to get out. Marta (10. could / was able to) help her brother out of the car.

The children started walking back. Mr. Garcia was (11. very / absolutely) thrilled to see his children again.

Marta is an (12. absolutely / extremely) brave girl.

6 Conversation

Michael: What's the most awesome experience you've ever had?

Andrew: Definitely when I went shark diving. Have you ever heard of it?

Michael: No, never.

Andrew: Well, I went shark diving in Gansbaai, South Africa. It's one of the best places in the world to see the great white sharks up close.

Michael: You're out of your mind! You'll never catch me diving in the middle of sharks.

Andrew: It's not like that. You go out on a boat to a place called "Shark Alley," and you go down inside a cage. The people on the boat throw out big pieces of fish tied to a rope in order to attract the sharks. The sharks come up real close, and frequently they knock the cage with their heads.

Michael: Weren't you afraid?

Andrew: To be honest, I was scared to death.

Gansbaai,
South Africa

FYI

"Gansbaai" is the Afrikaans word that means "goose bay."

What do you know about camels? Have you ever ridden one?

Ships of the Desert

"It's the one of the most uncomfortable experiences I've ever had. But it was incredibly fun! I'll never forget it!" That's what many people say after they have ridden a camel for the first time. Camels, also known as "ships of the desert," have been a favorite means of transport for millennia due to their ability to withstand the hot, dry climate of the desert.

Riding a camel is not the same as riding a horse. First, the rider must sit and balance himself about two meters above the ground on the camel's hump. Second, a camel walks differently than a horse. It moves the two right legs together, and then the two left legs. This can make the rider swing from side to side.

Riding a camel for the first time? Here are some helpful tips:

1. Wear sunscreen, long sleeves, and a hat for protection from the hot sun.
2. Wear long pants and socks to protect your legs from getting itchy.
3. Always go riding with an experienced cameleer who knows the animal. Camels are emotional and will respond better if a familiar person is nearby.
4. Get on when the camel is in a sitting position. Put one foot on a small stool and then throw your other leg over the camel's hump in one motion.
5. When the camel stands up, hold on tight and grip your knees around the camel's sides. As the camel leans forward, lean back in the opposite direction to keep from falling.
6. Sit and hold the reins confidently. Camels are intelligent and can sense if you are nervous.
7. Relax in the saddle and bend your knees at a 90° angle. This will help you balance as the camel swings you from side to side.
8. After the ride, wait for the camel to sit down. Hold on. Lean back and then forward, just as you did when the camel stood up.

9 Writing

A. Read about Ali's uncle. Circle all the linking words and phrases that you can find.

Do you know anyone who has gone scuba diving in the coral reefs of the Red Sea, mountain biking in Al Baha, or paragliding in Asir? These are just a few of the exciting things my uncle has done. Hameed is a travel writer who publishes articles to promote youth tourism in the Kingdom. He believes that the best way to write about things is to experience them. He has ridden camels and raced Arabian horses. He has also climbed to the summit of Shada Mountain. He has been sand skiing in the Rub' Al Khali Desert and has driven a 4x4 in the dunes of Al Qassim.

Of course, he is careful. "Safety comes first," he always says. Before he does any extreme or dangerous activity, he first learns about it. Then he trains with expert instructors. In fact, he spent a week practicing in a pool before he went scuba diving in the sea.

So what's next for Uncle Hameed? He hasn't flown in a hot air balloon, nor has he tried kite surfing. However, he has promised to take me mountain biking around Al Souda Mountain when I'm 16. I can't wait!

What do you know about the two billionaires?

Success!

From a poor family in Saudi Arabia, Sheikh Sulaiman bin Abdul-Aziz Al-Rajhi managed to become a billionaire and one of the world's most respected businessmen and philanthropists.

Sulaiman Al-Rajhi grew up in Al-Qassim, where he and his older brother, Saleh, set up a small business. They started by changing money for travelers who were going to visit the holy cities of Makkah and Madinah. When the oil industry grew in the 1970s, the brothers expanded their business. Many men from other countries came to work in Saudi Arabia. Sulaiman and Saleh helped these men by creating a safe and reliable way to send money back home to their families. Then, in 1983, they opened Saudi Arabia's first Islamic bank. Today, Al-Rajhi Bank is the largest Islamic bank in the world.

Over the years, Sulaiman Al-Rajhi has invested his wealth in many other businesses, education, and charities. One of these is organic farming, because he believes in a healthy lifestyle. He also set up the Awqaf Sulaiman Al-Rajhi Holding Company (ASRHC) which supports charities and humanitarian projects around the world. In 2009, the Awqaf Sulaiman Al-Rajhi Holding Company (ASRHC) opened the Sulaiman Al-Rajhi University, which offers courses in Nursing, Medicine, and Health Sciences.

In 2011, Sulaiman Al-Rajhi decided to give away his entire fortune of $7.7 billion. He gave most of his money to his family and the rest to charity. For his many years of hard work to establish an Islamic bank and his generous efforts to help others, he was awarded the King Faisal International Prize for Service to Islam in 2012. Today he is rich in experience, and he happily continues to work on projects with the Awqaf Sulaiman Al-Rajhi Holding Company (ASRHC).

As a young boy, Bill Gates was an unlikely candidate for one of the future richest men in the world. He was shy and not very sociable. But he had a special talent for math and science. His parents recognized his intelligence and enrolled him in Lakeside, a school in Seattle that was known for its high academic achievement.

It was there that Bill Gates came into contact with the first computer, and also met fellow student Paul Allen, who shared his fascination for computers. At the age of 17, Gates built a timetable system for the school and earned $4,200.

In 1976, Gates dropped out of Harvard and started Microsoft with Paul. Their big opportunity came in 1980 when they signed an agreement to provide the operating system for IBM's new personal computer. The operating system, MS-DOS, became the operating system for PCs all over the world.

In 1973, Bill Gates went to Harvard University, but his heart was not in his studies. While he was in college, he teamed up with Paul Allen to write the first computer language program for the PC (personal computer) called BASIC.

Bill Gates became a billionaire, and today he uses his money to improve the lives of hundreds of people globally through an organization that he and his wife founded—the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.
